

Southwest Ohio Adventure Tour

Warren County, Ohio conveniently located in southwest Ohio between Dayton and Cincinnati is the perfect location for a group tour. Your group will enjoy beautiful foliage up close and personal as you float down the Historic Little Miami River, and drive the grounds at Ft Ancient. Enjoy a fabulous evening of entertainment at La Comedia with a Broadway style production and step back in time for dinner at the Historic Golden Lamb. This will be a tour your group will long remember. For assistance planning this itinerary or any visit to Southwest Ohio call Linda Smith at the Warren County CVB, 800-433-1072.

DAY ONE

Museum at the Friends Home

The Museum at the Friends Home occupies the large historic 100+ year old Friends Boarding Home, located in Waynesville's Quaker Historic District. The QHD also includes two Quaker meeting houses built in 1811 and 1885 and the 1803 Quaker burial ground, all of which are on the National Register of Historic Places. Housed within the boarding home's original rooms are exhibits on the Quakers and their migration from slavery along with their connection to the local Underground Railroad. There are 22 rooms of local history, period clothing, quilts and much more within this lovingly restored jewel. Contact Dolly McKeehan at 513-897-1607.

Enjoy a good night's rest. For group tickets call 800-677-9505 ext 2.

Day Two      Enjoy breakfast at your hotel before departing for the day.

FT Ancient (World Heritage site nominee)

Fort Ancient features 18,000 feet of earthen walls built 2,000 years ago by American Indians who used the shoulder blades of deer, split elk antler, clam shell hoes and digging sticks to dig the dirt. They then carried the soil in baskets holding 35 to 40 pounds. Portions of these walls were used in conjunction with the sun and moon to provide a calendar system for these peoples

The Museum at Fort Ancient contains 9000 sq. ft. of exhibits, including many interactive units, focusing on 15,000 years of American Indian history in the Ohio Valley. www.FortAncient.org
