

OHIO

CAMBRIDGE GUERNSEY COUNTY Visitors & Convention Bureau

VISITGUERNSEYCOUNTY.COM 800.933.5480

It Is Written in the Stars

Learn how Cambridge has a star studded past and present in the culinary realm! Delicious cuisine takes center stage on this tour! Celebrities have touted Cambridge, Ohio as a place to dine and to gather elegant and useful glass to serve their guests.

Day One

The actress & singer Cher uses this Turkey for her Thanksgiving guests!!

Tour Mosser Glass and shop

Learn more of this on the tour of Mosser Glass.
Allow one hour for the tour and shopping

Park the coach in our quaint Downtown Cambridge and let your guests enjoy shopping and viewing our beautiful architecture.

Lunch- Choose from an array of local restaurants.

Afternoon- Tour the National Museum of Cambridge Glass and learn about the Hollywood Stars and current day television shows that showcase this lovely glass made right here in Cambridge, Ohio up until the 1950's!! Carole Lombard collected Cambridge Glass to use when serving guests in their Hollywood home! Allow 90 minutes for this tour

Dinner

Make a toast to Cambridge and enjoy a delicious dinner at one of our local favorites.

Music with dinner

Overnight in one of our hotels or at the Salt Fork Lodge & Conference Center.

OHIO

CAMBRIDGE GUERNSEY COUNTY

Visitors & Convention Bureau

VISITGUERNSEYCOUNTY.COM 800.933.5480

Day Two

When you depart your hotel, note the statue of John Glenn in downtown Cambridge, Ohio. John Glenn was born in Cambridge, Ohio then moved to New Concord, Ohio with his family. Tour the John & Annie Glenn Museum-Allow 90 minutes for this first-person tour. John Glenn circled the globe and saw the stars from his space capsule!

Depart

Cambridge/Guernsey County VCB

Dixie L. Lacy, Sales Manager

Groups@VisitGuernseyCounty.com | VisitGuernseyCounty.com

740.432.2022 | 800.933.5480

